Team Member Agreement

While I am volunteering with CFI...

I understand Haiti is an unstable and potentially dangerous third-world country and I have read and understand the current CFI trip status explaining safety concerns.

I agree not to give money, jobs or to pledge finances either personally or for the mission in any way. The same rules apply for gifts (except as part of team activities, approved by the Team Leader).

I understand that any mission trip will involve many uncertainties and that any and all of our mission plans could change, based on the most current needs of the mission and unforeseen circumstances. Flexibility is a requirement of all Team Members.

I understand the Haitian side of this ministry was begun by devout, God-loving people who felt it was important to set a high standard in their country as representatives of the Lord Jesus Christ; that as partners in ministry for over 30 years, CFI has accepted this higher standard of conduct of abstaining from alcohol, drugs, and tobacco while in Haiti. I agree as a Team Member to honor this tradition.

I agree to accept all Team Leader decisions and follow all CFI guidelines during my trip. I will seek to work with diligence and excellence in a way that honors God and provides a good witness to our country hosts.

I pledge to work with harmony with all team members and I'm willing to set aside personal preferences, habits & schedule to fulfill the mission of our team and CFI.

I will seek to encourage and build up my team members and everyone I meet in Haiti.

I understand that my $100 deposit is non-refundable, I agree to pay my airfare and in-country fee in full to CFI when due, and that due to the time and expense of trip-related preparations and logistics, refunds of my In-Country Fee are at the sole discretion of CFI if I am not able to go

As the success of our team depends on proper preparation of each member, I agree to carefully read the Team Member Booklet, follow all guidelines, timeframes and deadlines: including payment of deposit, ticket money and In-Country Fee.

I give my release for my image/photo and the image/photos of any minor in my care on this trip and any photos I may give to CFI, and any written comments on the Team Member Survey to be used for any purpose CFI may deem fit to promote the ministry of CFI.

I understand that in both the CFI office and on the Haiti Campus there are web cams, and images of me may appear on the CFI website.

I agree to release my contact information to my fellow teammates.
